

Our government is for, by and of the people. Our airways should be the same way too. It will not be right to let corporations get total control of our airways and let them become media dictators. That reminds me too much of Saddam controlling the media in Iraq.